

Comments of a Bon Vivant:

Summer vibes. A playful expression of red Grenache grapes. A great wine to explore new ways.

Celler De Capcanes Mas Torto Brisat

On the cusp of the noble wine regions of Priorat and Montsant, Celler de Capcanes offers an alluring dimension of Catalan wine making. Begun as a co-operative in the 1930s when five families got together to vinify all the wine of this Priorat-area village, the Celler de Capcanes drew the attention of the wine world in the early nineties when they started to produce premium Kosher wines for the Jewish community in Barcelona. Today, the Kosher wines, while still very important for the entire winery and village, represent a small percentage of the overall production. The rest of the wines are not Kosher, just simply outstanding with singular old vines Grenache, and wines from typically French varietals including Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Syrah. The quality of wines produced by Celler de Capcanes with the overwhelming positive international reaction played a huge part in Montsant receiving the DO status in 2001.

VITICULTURE

The trampled grapes are vinified in French oak 1000L foudres. The must macerates in contact with the skins and the cap is steered several times during the alcoholic fermentation, following the classical red wine methodology.
