Cognac Jean-Luc Pasquet L'Organic 04

This Grande Champagne property has been in the family since 1730. Passed down through generations, Jean-Luc came to inherit the domain in 1971. Today, Jean-Luc's son Jean, and his wife Amy, carry on the traditions and craftsmanship of the family domain. Jean inherited the passion for the purity of premium cognac from his ancestors. Following traditional craftsmanship, complemented by intense training and natural skills as maître de chai, Jean and Amy harvest 100% healthy grapes from their organically farmed, 8 ha vineyard in Grande Champagne that surrounds their home in the small village in Eraville. A second vineyard with an additional 6 ha is located in Petite Champagne.

VITICULTURE

The family's vineyards are located in the sought-after appellations of Grande Champagne and Petite Champagne.

In 1995, father and son converted to organic viticulture.

At harvest time, a pre-selection of grapes is performed on the vines, only leaving 100% healthy grapes. The grapes are then harvested mechanically to ensure maximum freshness.
